

SFV JACL'S 75TH ANNIVERSARY CELEBRATION
Installation Luncheon Sunday, January 22, 2017

Come one, come all to celebrate our Chapter's 75 years of amazing service promoting and supporting civil rights. We are proud to have brought programs about our Japanese American history and culture to our community.

This year, our keynote speaker is Terry Hara, LAPD Deputy Chief (Ret.). Chief Hara retired from the Los Angeles Police Department (LAPD) after 35 years of distinguished public service to the City of Los Angeles. He achieved the rank of Deputy Police Chief, and became the first Asian American of the LAPD to hold such an office.

Prior to retiring from the LAPD, Chief Hara was the Commanding Officer for Operations West Bureau (OWB). He was also in command of the Personnel and Training Bureau, Detectives, Patrol, Vice, Gang Units and Community Relations.

Chief Hara is a member of the International Association of Chiefs of Police, Japanese Chamber of Commerce of Southern California, Go For Broke National Education Center, National Association of Asian American Law Enforcement Commanders and the US-Japan Council and Advisor to Japan House-Los Angeles.

We are presenting a slideshow with highlights of our Chapter's 75-year-old history. We look forward to seeing members who have supported our Chapter throughout the years and we hope new members will join us for their first installation luncheon.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

November 2016

Our November board meeting took place the day after the election. Before the meeting a program planning meeting was held to plan for next year's activities. We were all reeling in the after-shock of the election the day before. Nevertheless, we made plans for the new year. It will begin with our joyous New Year's Installation at the Odyssey Restaurant; the Day of Remembrance, Feb. 18, this year commemorating the 75th anniversary of the signing of the infamous Executive Order 9066 ordering us into concentration camps (see below); a series of writing workshops; an Asian Media Panel with prominent Asian Americans describing the status of the depiction of Asians in the media; a visit to the newly opened sports museum in Exposition Park; our participation in the Buddhist Temple's Obon; a celebration of Grandparent's Day; a Moslem speaker; a Buddhist/Christian Dialogue; and capping our year with our Holiday Party in December. Board member, Tomo Hattori, Asian American professor at CSUN, has volunteered to assign students to write essays on JACL civil rights activities, as well as assigning a Muslim student to become involved with our Chapter to better inform us about the Muslims in our neighborhood.

As I write this, a wide-ranging group of community organizations are staging "I Am America", coming together at a Catholic church in Boyle Heights to protest actions likely to be taken by government leaders being appointed by President-Elect Trump. Those he has proposed to appoint have records of actions, if put into place, would spell disaster for many in our community, including LGBT individuals. Of particular note was the outrageous comment by author Carl Higbie, who proposed registering all Muslims. When interviewed on Fox News, Higbie cited as precedent the incarceration of JA's during WWII! In addition to this, a Trump appointee says he will expand deportation of the undocumented- even affecting the children of the undocumented, some of whom are productive college graduates. Since 9/11, I have been proud to see our community stand up for Muslims and Southeast Asians as they faced many forms of discrimination. Particularly, considering our past experience in this country, we as members of the San Fernando Valley Chapter of the Japanese American Citizens League, must do all within our power to stand with potential victims of these outrageous forms of discrimination soon to be perpetrated by our own government.

Phil Shigekuni

CHAPTER SUPPORT JACL-PSWD PROGRAMS

On Saturday, October 22, 2016, at the SFVJA Community Center, our Chapter sponsored a benefit dance to support PSWD's Bridging Communities program and JACL's Kakehashi Project. Bridging Communities is a program for high school students that provides opportunity for interfaith and cross-cultural dialogue, community service, and individual growth. JACL developed the Kakehashi Japanese American Young Adult Invitation program as an international leadership development program. Four participants who were chosen to participate in this program were in attendance to share their experience traveling to Japan and expressed their gratitude for having this opportunity.

Popular dance band, Kokoro, provided the live music and featured SFVJACC 2001 Nisei Week Queen Lauren Kinkade as one of the vocalist. Enjoying the evening were JACLers Yas and Nancy Gohata, Roger and Linda Itaya, Marcia Mahony, Evelyn Mitarai, and Linda Tanaka. There were plenty of delicious appetizers and munchies. Board member Nancy Takayama, who oversees many of the programs at PSWD, was instrumental in helping with this fundraiser.

MISORA HIBARI TRIBUTE

On Sunday, November 13, 2016, over one hundred people enjoyed the songs of Misora Hibari at the SFV JA Community Center.

The Grateful Crane Theater Company's performance of their rendition of Misora Hibari songs brought back childhood memories of Misora Hibari's visits and performances in Hawaii while she was still a child and her later years on the West Coast cities while Japanese Americans were recovering from the hardships of camp life and Japan was rebuilding life after the devastation of World War II.

Audience members recalled how Misora Hibari's voice brought back sweet memories and offered hope for the future.

Executive Director for Grateful Crane Theater Company announced singing performances were by: Keiko Kawashima, Haruye Ioka, Merv Maruyama, Helen H. Ota and Fusako Shiotani. Musicians for the show included musical director for Grateful Crane, Scott Nagatani on piano, Danny Yamamoto (of Hiroshima) on drums and Japanese percussion, and Hiro Morozumi on keyboard and guitar.

OKAERI 2016

Okaeri 2016 was an event held at JANM on October 14th and 15th. Chapter member Marsha Aizumi served as the chairperson for this important event in the Southern California API LGBTQ community. You can read her important article in the Pacific Citizen Nov. 4-17, 2016 issue. It was so appropriately titled: A Mother's Take: We Were Welcomed Home – Okaeri 2016.

The first Okaeri LGBTQ Gathering was held in November of 2014. Two years and a Supreme Court ruling on June 26, 2015 later, I thought the mood and atmosphere was different. I felt so gratified at what had been accomplished by the efforts of so many advocates over many years, as well as appreciative of those who have suffered much over the years.

I was so grateful that the Okaeri planning team was able to get Representative Mike Honda, his daughter Michelle Honda and his granddaughter Malisa to attend Okaeri 2016. Mike Honda has been openly supportive of his transgender granddaughter, Malisa, and stands as a giant in my mind for his many positions on civil rights, honesty and justice for all, especially in regard to LGBTQ and the Comfort Women Peace monument in Glendale.

It appears that Caitlyn Jenner's coming out as a transgender woman has given courage to so many who to seek to live a life without suffocating in fear. Informed parents now are able to seek help for children who speak about their gender dysphoria, or gender identity disorder. At our San Gabriel Valley API PFLAG chapter, I met a person who has now committed to undergo transition, and one who has transitioned and is now learning to adjust to her new life. I was not aware of the many life adjustment issues that many transgenders face.

Thankfully, we live in an age where people are more inclined to realize that there is a lot about life that we don't know about, and are willing to learn!

A very belated welcome to George Wakiji, who joined our Chapter in August. George has been a JACLER for over fifty years. His first chapter was in Pasadena. His recent move to Nikkei Senior Gardens brought George to our Chapter. He will serve on the 2017 Board of Directors. George shared, "through the JACL, I have made many friends. I feel the JACL serves an important role in Civil Rights for our community".

We welcome Dr. Randi Oyama, who joined our Chapter in October. Randi is following in the footsteps of her father, Dr. Clifford Oyama, who began his dentistry practice with our own Dr. Bo Sakaguchi.

ONLY THE OAKS REMAIN

At three o'clock on October 2, 2016, the SFV Taiko took center stage and opened the celebration with a bang! Master of Ceremonies, Kanji Sahara, introduced Consul General Akira Chiba, NPS programs chair, Kara Miyagishima, Patty Lopez, State Assembly, District 39, and Koji Steven Sakai, JANM Vice President.

The Honorable Norman Mineta was the featured speaker whose own mark on history left an impression with the young audience by his action on 9/11 and dedicating the honor wall with over 2,000 names of Japanese, German, and Italian immigrants, and Japanese taken from Peru. Others in attendance were Supervisor Michael Antonovich, JANM CEO Ann Burroughs, and retired LAPD Deputy Chief Terry Hara.

Reverend Yoshi Tsuyuki blessed the memorial exhibit with offerings from the representatives including Haru Kuromiya (descendants), Barbara Maekawa (food preparation), and Ritsuko Shinbashi (translators). There was a sake toast for safe travels by Paul Jonokuchi who was assisted by Nisei Week Queen, Jaclyn Tomita and her princesses. The SFVJACC sponsored the refreshments for the event. Fugetsudo Confectionary stamped the Kohaku manju with their best wishes. Rich Nakajima of Sugiolife Catering prepared the freshest sushi ever. He started as early as 11 pm the night before!

Former JACL scholarship winner, Ariel Imamoto, and Tuna Canyon intern, was prepared to assist visitors through the thirty-six panels. Dr. J.P. DeGuzman was on hand to guide attendees.

Special thanks to Nancy Gohata, Mitzi Kushida, Nancy Takayama, and Linda Tanaka whose smiling faces welcomed guests who came to see the Tuna Canyon Detention Station traveling exhibit.

After a stint in Balboa Park in San Diego, the exhibit will open at the Japanese American National Museum from December 10 until April 9, 2017. Please come!

TELLING OUR STORIES

“Telling Our Stories” classes are taking a break until next March 2017, when the writing program will begin again headed by Academy Award Winner Short Documentary writer, Timothy Toyama for the film “Visas and Virtues” about Consul General of Japan, who issued exit visas via Japan to Jews fleeing Nazi German authority.

“Telling Our Stories” is a two hour class where Nisei, Sansei and others have the opportunity to share their early life experiences about family life, holidays, musical talents, work and travel experiences among other topics with class members and recall some joyful, painful and remarkable stories.

A joyful, charming Buddhist nurse was so engaging her Mormon patient joined her in a Buddhist chant. Another student wrote about a 16-hour work-day at a pineapple factory. Everyone has dozens of interesting stories to recount, as a child of mixed parentage, growing up in a community different from the San Fernando Valley, life in camp or the impact that WWII had on our parents and us or sibling rivalry. This class is an opportunity to jot it down and share it with other class members.

Next year, three sessions of 2 hour, six week classes will be held at the SFV JACC. The class will meet either on Thursday evening or Saturday afternoon to accommodate different schedules. The hope is that more people will come join one of the classes. At the end of the third session we will invite the members and former members of the classes to submit a story for publication in a book we are assembling to capture our more memorable stories.

If you are interested in learning more about the class and some of the topics we’ve written about, please email me at: pe.high.mtn@juno.com or leave a phone message at: (818) 899-7916.

JACC CLEAN UP

October 1st was a beautiful sunny fall day for cleaning our home, the SFV JACC.

It was heartwarming to see the Japanese Language school children picking up trash, the little basketball guys pulling weeds, adults dusting and cleaning the buildings inside and outside, and some hardy souls scrubbing and repainting the iron fence. What a tough job. Mr. Kobayashi, Mr. Shinbashi and Mr. Nakama, our “CC Treasures,” skillfully trimmed our Black Pine trees. Thank you all!

Our Chapter’s kitchen crew, Dr Harvey Negoro and Nancy Gohata warmed the buns and cooked the hot dogs just right! Linda Kuratomi prepared outstanding chile. Harold Kameya, Linda Tanaka, Sumi Yamaguchi, Doreen Kawamoto, and Evie Mitarai served over 170 fresh delicious lunches with a smile. It was so good that many of the hungry workers came back for seconds! Al Kushida had “dish pan” hands at the end of the day. We missed our dear Kitchen manager and inspector and her husband, Marion and Phil Shigekuni. They went on a Fall Foliage cruise without our consent or permission. They’ll have double duty next year. A fun, work time was had by all. The SFV JACC is sparkling clean for the holidays.

COMMUNITY CORNER

Congratulations to Julie Shigekuni, daughter of President Phil Shigekuni and Marion Shigekuni, whose fourth book, In Plain View, debuted at the Skylight Book Store in Los Angeles on November 20th.

Julia Glass, National Book Award-winning author of Three Junes, wrote: “Julie Shigekuni seems to know painfully well the complex loyalties that a ‘settled’ modern woman owes to the world that would define her: to her spouse, to her children and parents, to work and to the home, and (most perilously) to her heritage and heart. What can happen when all these loyalties suddenly collide is the subject of this elegant, suspenseful, and ultimately haunting tale”

Julie, mother of three daughters, is a tenured professor of Creative Writing at the University of New Mexico. Her previous books include A Bridge Between Us (1995), Invisible Gardens (2003), and Unending Nora (2008).
